

Thursday, 2 June 2022

14.30–15.00

Introduction

Sina Steglich and Emily Steinhauer,
German Historical Institute London

15.00–17.00

Panel I: Genealogies and Trajectories of European Intellectual History

Stuart Jones (University of Manchester):

The 'Historical Method', Political Thought, and the Genealogy of Intellectual History in Victorian Britain

Dina Gusejnova (London School of Economics):

Anglo-German Political Thought from the 1930s to the first Years of Decolonisation: A Site-Specific Intellectual History

Kai Gräf and Sebastian Schütte (Ruprecht Karls University of Heidelberg):

An Unpopular Discipline. Debating Intellectual History in Germany from the 1930s to the 1990s

Luke Ilott (University of Cambridge):

Intellectual History as a Mode of Political Thought in Foucault's France, 1970–1980

Chair: Sina Steglich

17.30–19.00

Key Note: Richard Bourke (University of Cambridge): Hegel in European and Anglophone Contexts

Chair: Emily Steinhauer

19.00/20.00

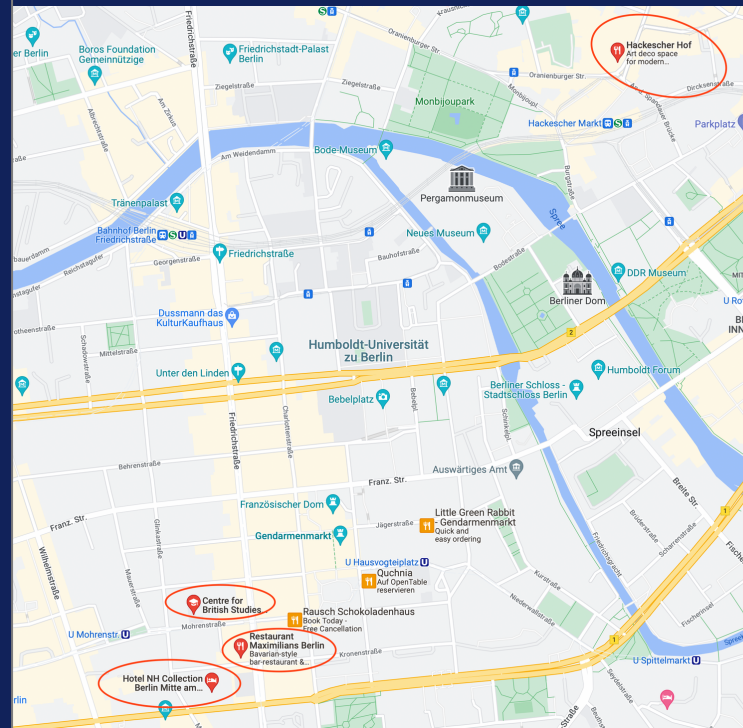

Wine Reception followed by a Bavarian
Dinner at the Maximilian's,
Friedrichstrasse 185–190

Location

Humboldt University Berlin
Centre for British Studies/Großbritannien-Zentrum
Mohrenstraße 60
10117 Berlin

Accommodation

NH Collection Berlin Mitte am
Checkpoint Charlie
Leipziger Str. 106-111
10117 Berlin

German Association for British Studies Annual Conference

*From Cambridge to Bielefeld
– and back?
British and Continental
Approaches to Intellectual History*

2–4 June 2022

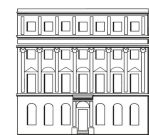

organised by
Sina Steglich and Emily Steinhauer

Arbeitskreis
Großbritannien
Forschung

German
Association for British Studies

German
Historical Institute
London

Friday, 3 June 2022

09.30–10.00

Introduction of the *Fachinformationsdienst
Anglo-American Culture*

10.00 – 10.30

Coffee Break

10.30–12.30

Panel II: Intellectual History in Britain beyond
Cambridge: Oxford, London, Sussex

Tim Stuart-Buttle (University of York):

The Itinerant Oxonian: Hugh Trevor-Roper

Max Skjönsberg (University of Cambridge):

*Intellectual History at the LSE: Michael Oakeshott's
History of Political Thought*

Cesare Cuttica (University of Paris-8):

*The Forgotten Location on the Intellectual History
Map: A Portrayal of the Sussex „non-School“*

Chair: Wencke Meteling (Philipps University of Marburg)

12.30–14.00

Lunch

14.00–16.00

Panel III: Embodiment, Thought, and Practice:

Intimate Histories of Ideas in Britain, c. 1780–1939

Heather Ellis (University of Sheffield):

Ancient and Modern Knowledge: Classical Authors and Scientific Discourse in Manchester, 1780–1840

Martha Vandrei (University of Exeter):

*Practical Metaphysics and the Problem of Idealism:
Thinking and Being among the Late Romantics*

Laura Forster (University of Durham):

*Intimate Radicalisms: Feeling Political in 19th-century
Britain*

Hélène Maloigne (University College London):
*'Sudden Coordination'. Early 20th-century Field
Archaeology in the Middle East and the History of Ideas*

Chair: Michael Czolkoß-Hettwer (Niedersächsische Staats- und Universitätsbibliothek Göttingen)

16.00–16.30

Coffee Break

16.30–18.30

Panel IV: Methodological Reconsiderations of Intellectual History

Ian Stewart (Queen Mary University of London):
Ideas of Language and Intellectual History

Alina Marktanner (RWTH Aachen):

Imperial Botany as a „Global Intellectual History“?

Stanisław Knapowski (Adam Mickiewicz University of Poznań): Actor-Network Theory and Intellectual History

Chair: Pascale Siegrist

19.30–

Conference Dinner at Hackescher Hof,
Rosenthaler Strasse 40–41

Saturday, 4 June 2022

10.00–12.00

Panel V: Transcending Disciplinary Boundaries

Adriana Markantonatos (Ludwig Maximilians University of Munich): Conceptual History as History of Knowledge.

A Visual Intellectual History of Reinhart Koselleck's Method of „Begriffsgeschichte“

Felix Oberholzer (University of Basel):

*Historiography and the Meaning of Experience:
Feminist Reflections on the Subjects of Intellectual History*

Olga Byrska (European University Institute Florence):
Beyond Schools and Traditions: The Interdisciplinarity of Intellectual History

Alec Walker (Free University of Berlin):

*Embedding Global Capitalism, Emplotting
Neoliberalism: Political Economy and German*

Intellectual History

Chair: Emily Steinhauer

12.00–12.30

Final Discussion

Sina Steglich and Emily Steinhauer

14.00–

Annual General Meeting of the German Association for British Studies
(members only)

German
Historical Institute
London